

THIRD COAST FESTIVAL

Chicago is home base for a remarkable and flourishing audio documentary renaissance. Start at the basic site:

<http://www.thirdcoastfestival.org/>

see archives for downloadable programs; the resources and links are very good: esp. advice on what recording and editing equipment to buy.

SOUNDPRINT

the longest running radio documentary organization produces a wide range of materials, many can be ordered on CD.

<http://www.soundprint.org/>

THIS AMERICAN LIFE

WBEZ's landmark audio program combines investigation and storytelling based on life experiences. The site allows ;you to download and stream programs using RealAudio player (a free downloadable software). Check out the "how to" information, on making a program. presented in comic book format.

<http://www.thislife.org/>

LOST AND FOUND SOUND

A wonderful site for an NPR project on recovering sound documents from the past.

<http://npr.org/programs/lfsound/>

WBEZ

Chicago's central NPR station. The website has ample links to various audio documentary resources.

<http://www.wbez.org/>

audio library materials:

http://www.wbez.org/audio_library/wv_ramar04.asp#08

<http://www.thislife.org/>

Internet Archive

<http://www.archive.org/details/movies>